

LIST OF FIGURES

Fig	II-1	Numbers of Registered Physicians from 1950 through 2000	21
Fig	III-1	MOH yearly disbursement for contracted hospitals 1994-2001	35
Fig	III-2	Health Expenditures by Source of financing	47
Fig	III-3	Treasury sources of health financing	48
Fig	III-4	Source of private health financing	48
Fig	V-1	MOH allotted budgets and accrual Expenditures on private hospitals from 1993 to 2001 (in billion L.P.)	66
Fig	VI-1	The impact of (over) supply and payment methods on utilization and cost of hospital services	110
	VI-1a	Number of admissions in MOH contracted hospitals and incurred spending from 1998 to 2001	110
	VI-1b	Average cost per admission and per patient day from 1998 to 2001	110
Fig	VI-2	Supplier induced demand and the impact of cutting down surgical fees and introducing copayment	111
	VI-2a	Spending on Open Heart Surgery between 1992 and 2001	111
	VI-2b	Number of Open Heart interventions in relation with the number of centers between 1992 and 2001	111
Fig	VI-3	Control of Supply: Normative (Up-stream) versus Incentive (Downstream) approach	114
Fig	VI-4	Hospital and Primary Health Care Quality Assurance	119
Fig	VI-5	Basic Scores for all hospitals-bar chart	122
Fig	VI-6	Accreditation Scores for all hospitals-bar chart	122
Fig	VI-7	Score Average by hospital capacity	123
Fig	VI-8	Basic and Accreditation scores by type of ownership	123
Fig	VI-9	VISA Billing and Interconnecting Database	125
Fig	VI-10	Integration of reform components targeting efficiency and equity	127
Fig	VI-11	Integration of reform components targeting cost containment of ambulatory and hospital care, and households out-of-pocket	129
Fig	VII-1	Health Financing Reform Options: Bargaining power of different stakeholders	141
Fig	VII-2	Assessment of the feasibility and sustainability of reform options (all stakeholders)	145
Fig	VII-3	Stakeholders positions towards option 2 feasibility elements	146
Fig	VII-4	Stakeholders positions towards option 2 sustainability elements	147